You have a 30 day review period from your effective date of the original policy in which to review the benefits provided and decide whether or not the coverage suits your needs.

If you decide to discontinue this policy during that period, simply contact us, provided no claim has been made, any premium paid will be promptly refunded and your policy will be cancelled as of your effective date.

All of our obligations and liabilities under this policy will end immediately when we receive your request to cancel the policy.

To cancel your policy, please provide your verbal or written request to:

TD Life Insurance Company, P.O. Box 1, TD Centre; Toronto, Ontario, M5K 1A2.

Definitions of the terms we have used

This policy uses the following terms, which have been listed in italics throughout the document.

Beneficiary means the person or persons you name in writing to receive all benefits under this policy.

Effective Date means the date(s) the policy goes into effect, as shown in the Policy Schedule.

Grace Period is the length of time after the premium is due and unpaid during which the policy remains in effect. If the full premium is paid during the grace period, the premium is considered to have been paid on time.

Lapse refers to the termination of this policy because the premium was not paid within the grace period.

Lapse Date refers to the date the policy lapses.

Insured Person is the person whose life is insured under this policy. Policy means this document which provides evidence of your insurance.

Policy Owner is the person or party who owns this individual insurance policy. The policy owner is not necessarily the person whose life is insured.

Reinstatement is the restoration of a lapsed policy as described in the section, 'Putting your policy back into effect'.

Reinstatement Effective Date is the date this policy is reinstated as described in the section, 'Putting your policy back into effect'.

Term Insurance is a type of insurance that provides protection for a limited number of years.

Eligibility

To be eligible to apply for insurance coverage under this policy, a proposed insured person must, at the time of application:

- Be a Canadian citizen; or
- Have applied for or been granted Permanent Resident (Landed Immigrant) status by the Canadian Government; and
- Be at least 18 years old and within 6 months of the 70th birthday.

How the death benefit is calculated

If a death benefit is payable under this policy, then we will pay the Sum Insured in effect at the time of death minus any outstanding premiums that are owed at the time the insured person dies.

This policy ends on the date the insured person dies.

Living Benefit

While this policy is active, you may request an advance payment of 50% of the Death Benefit if the insured person has a terminal illness (to a maximum of $100,000). The payment of this Living benefit is subject to our administrative rules in effect at the time of your request and subject to the following conditions:

- You must be diagnosed with a terminal illness with a life expectancy of 12 months or less; and

- Your policy must be in force and paid current.
- We will pay the benefit to the insured person;
- Any irrevocable beneficiary or policy owner under this policy must consent to the payment of the benefit;
- A special collateral assignment arrangement is used to assign the policy to us when the benefit is approved and paid. By administering the benefit as a loan means that in most instances the benefit is non-taxable.

When you claim the Living benefit, you agree to the following conditions and limitations on your rights as a policy owner:

- You may not cancel this policy;
- If premiums are not paid, either directly or through the waiver benefit, the amount of any unpaid premiums will increase the amount of the living benefit. The living benefit amount and any unpaid premium amount will accumulate interest until the death of the insured person. Interest is set at the current prime rate and may be adjusted if prime fluctuates by 1% or more.

When we will not pay an insurance benefit

We will not pay any insurance benefit if:

- The claim for insurance benefits is not made within 365 days of the date of death of the insured person; or
- The insured person dies due to suicide (whether the insured person is aware or not aware of the result of their actions, regardless of their state of mind) within 2 years of the effective date of coverage or the most recent reinstatement effective date. If no insurance benefit is payable as a result of suicide, then we will pay the policy owner 100% of premiums paid since the effective date or since the most recent reinstatement effective date if the policy has been reinstated.

Paying for your policy

Premiums for this policy

We will provide you with the benefits described in this policy if you pay the premiums shown in the premium schedule. You must pay all premiums to us by the premium due date.

If you are paying on a monthly basis, the first premium will be due on the First Premium Due Date specified in the Policy Schedule. Each subsequent premium due date will follow one calendar month later.

If you are paying on an annual basis, the first premium will be due on the First Premium Due Date specified in the Policy Schedule. Each subsequent premium due date will follow one year later.

You may be eligible for a premium discount, which if applicable will be applied to your premium payments. If you subsequently become ineligible for a premium discount, we will adjust your premiums accordingly.

Any premium that we have collected that relates to insurance coverage after the date of death of the insured person will be refunded in the same manner as the Sum Insured.

You must notify us if you wish to change the method or frequency of payments.

If premiums are not received

We will allow a grace period of thirty (30) calendar days, during which time this policy will remain in effect even if premiums are not paid by the due date. If a claim becomes payable during the grace period, all outstanding premiums will be deducted from any claim payable. If the outstanding premiums are not paid by the end of the grace period, this policy will lapse.

Putting your policy back into effect

If your policy ended because it lapsed, you may apply to have it put back into effect if the insured person is alive. This process is called reinstatement.

You* may apply to us within 2 years of the lapse date to have your policy reinstated. In order to reinstate your policy in that time period, you must meet all of the following criteria:

- The insured person must be alive;
- You must pay us all unpaid premiums due from the lapse date up to and including the reinstatement effective date;
- You must provide us with a completed Reinstatement Application; and
- You must provide us with new evidence of insurability for the insured person that we consider satisfactory.

Your right to convert to a permanent life insurance policy

At any time, up to and including the policy anniversary nearest to the insured person's 69th birthday, regardless of the health of the insured person, you may convert the insurance in effect under this policy. The converted insurance will be for an amount not to exceed the Sum Insured (provided on the Policy Schedule) and will be on any permanent plan we make available for such conversion.

To exercise the conversion option, you must complete an application form which we will provide and pay us the first premium required for the converted insurance. The amount of this premium will depend on the age of the insured person at the time the conversion option is exercised, the risk classification used for this policy and the plan of the converted insurance.

The converted policy will not include any waiver of premium benefits that you may have had on this policy.

Making a claim

Before we will pay any claim under this policy, the person making the claim (the claimant) must provide:

- Proof, satisfactory to us, that the insured person has died;
- Upon our request, access to any medical records that we require to assess the claim, including an attending physician's statement and a coroner's report.

In addition, the claimant must provide further proof of claim, if applicable.

In all cases, the proof must be provided within one (1) year of the date of death of the insured person and any cost incurred in providing proof of claim is at the claimant's expense.

When insurance coverage ends

All coverage under this policy will end on the earliest of the date when any of the following occurs:

- The insured person dies; or
- We receive request from you to cancel your coverage; or
- The end of the grace period if premiums are not paid; or

- Upon a fraudulent claim made by you or the beneficiary; or
- The insured person's 80th birthday.

Renewal

We will renew this policy and insurance in effect at the end of the initial 10 year period for successive 10 year renewal periods each of the same length as the initial period, except the renewal anniversary nearest to the insured person's 80th birthday. The final renewal period will only run until the insured person's 80th birthday, at which point the policy will end and there will be no further renewal.

Beneficiary

If a benefit is payable, we will pay the benefit to:

- Your beneficiary(ies); or
- If there is no beneficiary when the insured person dies, to you or your estate.

The right to name or change the beneficiary designation is reserved to you only. You do not need the consent of any beneficiary or beneficiaries to change any beneficiary under this policy, unless any rule of law requires his or her consent. All beneficiary designations are revocable unless otherwise stated or unless any contrary law applies.

If you wish to name or change your beneficiary, you must submit a written request to us, but such change shall not be binding on us until received at our Head Office. Once the beneficiary change request has been received, it will be our responsibility to fulfill the request as of the date the request was signed, but we will not be responsible for any benefits paid to the previous beneficiary before the receipt of the beneficiary request.

Assignments and other documents

We are not bound by any documents that affect rights under this contract unless the document itself or written notice of it is received at our Head Office. We are not responsible for ensuring that any such document is valid or has the desired effect.

General provisions

Premium Adjustments

If incorrect information was provided during the application process that qualified the insured person for preferred rates we reserve the right to re-issue the policy with an adjusted premium based on the correct information.

Any information you provide after the policy's effective date and which impacts the premium can only be honored at time of notification.

Misstatement of Age and Sex at Birth

If a policy is issued to an insured person based on an incorrect age, the following may apply:

- If the insured person is still eligible for insurance, the premium amount will be adjusted to the correct amount based on the correct date of birth at the insured person's effective date and;
 - If overpaid, we will refund the excess premiums calculated at the time a claim is made against this policy; or
 - If underpaid, we will decrease the benefit amount by the amount underpaid at the time a claim is made against this policy.
- If the insured person is not eligible for insurance, all coverages under this policy will be considered never to have been in force and we will refund all premiums paid.

If a policy is issued to an insured person based on an incorrect sex assigned at birth, the following may apply:

- The premium amount will be adjusted to the correct amount based on the correct sex assigned at birth at the insured person's effective date and:
 - If overpaid, we will refund the excess premiums calculated at the time a claim is made against this policy; or
 - If underpaid, we will decrease the benefit amount by the amount underpaid at the time a claim is made against this policy.

Contestability

We rely on the truth and completeness of the statements and answers you give us as evidence of insurability.

You understand that we may void your insurance coverage under this policy if you have concealed or misrepresented any information.

After insurance has been in effect for two (2) years from the effective date or reinstatement effective date we will treat all of the answers you gave as evidence of insurability as true, except for cases of fraudulent misrepresentation. This does not apply to information about the date of birth of the insured person in which case section Misstatement of Age and Sex at Birth above will apply.

Waiver

We shall not be deemed to have waived or changed any condition of this policy, either in whole or in part, unless such waiver or change is clearly expressed in writing and signed by an officer of TD Life Insurance Company.

Legal Action

No action at law or in equity shall be brought to recover on the policy prior to the expiration of 120 days after proof of claim has been furnished in accordance with the requirements of the policy. Every action or proceeding against an insurer for the recovery of insurance money payable under the contract is absolutely barred unless commenced within the time set out in the Insurance Act (for actions or proceedings governed by the laws of Alberta and British Columbia), the Insurance Act (for actions or proceedings governed by the laws of Manitoba), the Limitations Act, 2002 (for actions or proceedings governed by the laws of Ontario), or other applicable legislation. For those actions or proceedings governed by the laws of Quebec, the prescriptive period is set out in the Civil Code of Quebec.

Applicable Laws

Your insurance will be governed by the laws of the province where you were resident when you initially applied for insurance under this policy, without reference to that province's rules about conflicts of laws.

English Language

It is the express wish of the parties that this policy and all related documents, including notices and other communications, be drawn up in the English language only.

Waiver of Premiums Benefit

This section is applicable if you selected the Waiver of Premiums Benefit when you applied for TD 10-Year Term Life Insurance.

Waiver of Premiums on total disability

If while this policy is in effect, and before the insured person's 65th birthday, the insured person becomes totally disabled, as defined below, and remains totally disabled for a continuous period of six months, we will:

- Automatically change the policy premium payment frequency to monthly, if the payment frequency is other than monthly, beginning with the date we agree to waive premiums. If after the end of the period of total disability, you wish to pay premiums other than monthly then you must notify us.
- Waive the payment of monthly premiums from the date the insured person becomes totally disabled and for as long as the total disability continues, up to the insured person's 80th birthday.

Definition

"Total disability" or "totally disabled" shall mean that the insured person, as a result of bodily injury or disease, is wholly prevented during the first two years after the injury or the onset of the disease from performing the substantial duties of their own occupation; after the first two years the insured person must be prevented by the injury or disease, from engaging in any gainful occupation for which they are or may reasonably become qualified by training, education or experience.

Conversion option exercised during total disability

If you exercise the conversion option in this policy while the insured person is totally disabled, we will not waive premiums for the converted insurance policy.

Exceptions

We will not waive premiums if total disability results, either directly or indirectly, from one or more of the following causes:

- Attempted suicide or self-inflicted injury (whether the insured person is aware or not aware of the result of their actions, regardless of the insured person's state of mind);
- War, whether declared or undeclared, any act of war or activities directly related to service in the armed forces of any country;
- The commission or attempted commission by the insured person of a criminal act;
- An accident that occurs while the insured person is operating any kind of conveyance while their blood alcohol level exceeds the legal limit where the accident occurs;
- Taking a drug in a manner other than prescribed by a licensed physician.

Notice and proof of total disability

We must receive notice of total disability while the insured person is alive and continues to be totally disabled. We must also receive proof of the total disability of the insured person within 3 months of the date notice was provided to us. We will not waive any premiums falling due more than 12 months before the insured person gives us notice of total disability.

At any time, we may ask for proof that the insured person continues to be totally disabled and, if such proof is not provided, the insured person will be deemed to no longer be totally disabled on the day prior to the date on which we asked for the proof and monthly premiums will begin again.

Recurrent total disability

If after we have waived at least one premium under this provision, the insured person recovers, but within 6 months again becomes totally disabled from the same or a related cause, we will consider the subsequent period of total disability to be a continuation of the former period.

Premiums

The premiums for this waiver of premiums benefit are payable until the insured person's 65th birthday, and are shown in the Policy Schedule.

This is the end of the policy.

Here are answers to questions you may have about your TD 10-Year Term Life insurance protection

If my health changes during the term of my coverage, will my premiums increase?

Your premium is set and guaranteed for each 10-year term of your insurance coverage. It will not change during each 10-year term, regardless of changes in your age or health (provided premium payments are made when due and the policy does not lapse).

Do I need to re-apply for coverage at the end of each 10-year term?

No. As long as you continue to pay your premiums, your coverage will automatically renew at the end of each 10-year term for another 10-year term, with no medical questions. Coverage cannot be renewed beyond your 80th birthday.

Who will receive the benefits from my TD 10-Year Term Life insurance if I die?

The benefit amount from your insurance will be payable to the beneficiary(ies) you designated. That could be your spouse, child, friend or any other person you selected. If you have not designated a beneficiary(ies) the benefit amount from your insurance will be payable to the policy owner or policy owner's estate as applicable.

Can I convert my coverage to permanent life insurance?

Yes, you can convert to a permanent life insurance policy, with no medical questions, at any time up to and including the policy anniversary nearest the insured's 69th birthday. Of course, the premiums will depend on the type and amount of coverage chosen but, regardless of health, you cannot be turned down for coverage under this conversion option.

Will my beneficiary(ies) have to pay taxes on the benefit provided by my TD 10-Year Term Life insurance?

No, under current tax law, benefits paid on your insurance are tax-free to the designated beneficiary.

What happens if I become totally disabled?

If you are the policy owner, for an additional cost, you may choose to add a Waiver of Premium Benefit to the policy. This benefit must be added at the same time that you purchase TD 10-Year Term Life insurance. It can ensure that your coverage remains in place should you become disabled and cannot return to work, and may have problems paying for the policy. When you think about it, it ensures your coverage can stay in force when you need it most.

Form Do's and Don'ts

- Type or print all information on the forms enclosed, using a ball point pen;
- Do not use correction fluid (liquid paper);
- Initial any corrections/changes;
- Use of all lines is not required, if necessary you can use a separate piece of paper to list all of your beneficiary designations.

- Should you wish to designate a 'secondary' Contingent Beneficiary (see definition below), after the statement "if living, otherwise to" indicate the First, Middle and Last Name, Date of Birth or Age, Percent of Benefit to be paid in the event of your death and if the proceeds will be Revocable or Irrevocable for each individual(s) that you wish to name as beneficiary(ies);
- Should you wish to designate a child/children as your Primary or Contingent Beneficiary, we recommend that you also name a Trustee (see definition below). Step 2

- Mail the "Request for Change of Beneficiary" to TD Life in the enclosed self-addressed return envelope. TD Life will validate and record your Change of Beneficiary and return a confirmation letter to you for your records.

Note: TD Life cannot warrant the legal effectiveness of any change of beneficiary.

Points for Consideration

- Beneficiaries can be designated as Revocable or Irrevocable. If you name someone as an irrevocable beneficiary, they must consent to certain changes you may want to make to the policy in the future. For example, an irrevocable beneficiary must consent to any request to change the beneficiary or surrender the policy. In Quebec your spouse is automatically deemed to be an irrevocable beneficiary unless specifically designated as revocable;
- To change an irrevocable minor beneficiary designation in the future, the minor child must have reached the age of majority (18 or older, based on your jurisdiction). Until this age, the law does not permit the legal guardian or child to sign release of this designation. Furthermore, if you name a Trustee, this law also does not permit this individual to sign a release of irrevocable minor beneficiary, as the trustee does not have the entitlement prior to the death of the insured person;
- To revoke a minor child irrevocable beneficiary designation, a court order will be required;

- Proceeds payable to a named beneficiary (someone other than “estate”) are paid directly to the beneficiary and do not flow through the estate. This means that no probate or executor fees will be deducted from, and no estate creditors can make claims against, these proceeds;
- Proceeds are available to the beneficiary as soon as the claim is approved since they do not become part of the estate. Settlement of the estate usually takes a few months but can take years depending on the circumstances;
- You decide who will receive the insurance proceeds. Proceeds payable to “Estate” are distributed, in the absence of a will, according to the intestacy laws of your province.

Definitions

Contingent Beneficiary Designation: A ‘secondary’ list of beneficiary(ies), (subrogated in Quebec) who will receive the proceeds of the insurance in the event that none of the primary beneficiaries that you have designated are living at the time of your death.

Irrevocable Beneficiary Designation: If you name someone as an irrevocable beneficiary, you give up the right to change the beneficiary designation, unless the irrevocable beneficiary consents. This will also affect any other desired changes you may want to make to the policy in the future. In Quebec your spouse is automatically deemed to be an irrevocable beneficiary unless specifically designated as revocable.

Example — An irrevocable beneficiary must consent to any request to change the beneficiary or surrender the policy.

Minor: A person who has not attained the age of majority and, thus, has limited contractual capacity.

Primary Beneficiary Designation: A list of beneficiary(ies), who will receive the proceeds of the insurance in the event of your death.

Relationship Examples:

Spouse, child, mother, father, brother, sister, aunt, uncle, cousin, niece, nephew, grandmother, grandfather, sister-in-law, brother-in-law, mother-in-law, father-in-law, friend, estate.

Revocable Beneficiary Designation: A beneficiary who has no right to the policy proceeds during the insured’s lifetime, because the owner has the unrestricted right to change the beneficiary designation at any time.

Trustee: A Trust is a relationship in which one or more persons, known as the trustee, holds legal title to property known as the trust fund – for the benefit of another person. Care should be taken when naming minor beneficiaries, as the law does not allow an insurer to pay benefits directly to minors.
